Operation Rescue

Saturday, December 8, 2012

11:00 a.m. until 5:00 p.m.

All Day FREE Food and Clothing Distribution to Families

Everything is FREE and Open to the public: Food, Clothes, and Toiletries, etc.

All are Welcome!

Where: RECREATION CENTER of GARFIELD
Address: 466 Midland Ave., Garfield, N.J. 07026

Operation Rescue is co-hosted by:

Friendship Baptist Church, with Pastor Arthur Bryant, of Garfield, NJ
Takin it to the Streets, Inc., of Washington, DC
Higher Cause Productions, LLC of Alexandria, VA
Contact: Pastor Ron Hampton (1-406-545-9167) www.taketostreets.com

Featuring*:
Distribution of FREE FOOD and Clothing for Men, Women, and Children

Also Featuring*: Live Outreach Ministry with Gospel Music Performances

- blankets
- coats
- hats
- gloves
- boots
- canned or bottled baby formulas and foods
- disposable baby diapers
- toiletries for all ages.

The outreach and distribution team will depart the D.C. area with the food and clothing donations on Friday, Dec. 7, to travel to Garfield, N.J.. On Saturday, Dec. 8, the team will conduct ministry outreach while also distributing the food and clothing donations to the local resident families.

Donors should contact Hampton at takinittothestreets.inc@gmail.comfor more information on the donation drop-off locations. For information on making donations and monetary contributions, visit http://www.taketostreets.com/. All donations and monetary contributions are tax-deductible.

Takin' It to the Streets in an independent, nonprofit organization that provides an evangelistic opportunity for partnership among Christian faith-based churches, ministries and social-economic organizations to minister to the needs of the socioeconomically challenged communities, families and homeless persons.