

REQUEST FOR PROPOSALS COUNSEL – GARFIELD REDEVELOPMENT AGENCY

Services Overview

Proposals are solicited by the Garfield Redevelopment Agency for legal counsel related to the redevelopment activities for the City. These services include, but are not limited to, attendance at meetings as requested by the director, assisting in redeveloper negotiations, consultation and representation on legal matters relating to the project. These matters may include property acquisition (possibly through eminent domain), relocation, contract compliance and compliance with the Local Redevelopment and Housing Law.

Project Details

The Garfield Redevelopment Agency is an autonomous agency of the City of Garfield. The Agency is currently managing numerous projects in varying sizes and scopes, including, but not limited to: Vornado, Garden State Paper, C-Mor, Sketchley and The Kalama sites. All areas are designated as areas in need of redevelopment and have or are currently in the process of completing redevelopment plans. The status of each of the properties within the redevelopment area range from no formal action having been taken to developers designated with redevelopment agreements being executed. No construction has begun on any of the properties within any redevelopment area.

The successful proposer will have extensive knowledge of the Local Redevelopment and Housing Law, brownfields redevelopment and substantial redevelopment experience within the State of New Jersey. This RFP covers the period January 1, 2011 through December 31, 2011.

Scope of Services

The following services are anticipated through this Request for Proposals:

- Meeting attendance. (as needed)
- Legal consultation and representation regarding any potential legal action initiated by other parties that would challenge the eminent domain action, area in need of redevelopment designation or other process related to the Redevelopment Area.
- Legal consultation and representation related to relocation, property acquisition, regulatory agency compliance and other project-specific issues.
- Assist with the legal aspects of redeveloper agreement negotiations.
